

Self Defense...

Be honest, life will take you to a higher position, Mrs.S.Kaleeswari, Inspector of Police told the students during a special awareness program conducted by Women's Development Cell of Bannari Amman Institute of Technology on 09.02.2015.

On the special occasion she said that women should always have self-confidence throughout their life which will help them to protect themselves from various mishappening. She motivated the students by narrating a few real life incidents that she came across.

She gave some valuable advice to the students which stated that girls must not fear for anything and also said that a decision must not be taken hastily, one must take enough time before taking a decision was a very valuable advice given by her to the students the future leaders.

Then she said that a woman doesn't need any powerful weapon for self-defense, just a safety pin is enough to protect her from a person who is trying to approach her in a wrong way. She also added that the law has been made stronger against the victims of sexual abuse.

Women must be loyal, obedient and excel in their field of work and achieve greater heights in their life. Then she concluded her speech by telling that women and men are equal in the society.
